SIR,

I have the honor to report, that on the 30th Ultimo, I received a communication from the Sudr Naib of Cummmummett, reporting that the Rohillas had plundered the village of Cherla near Budrachellum, and were moving about the country in large bodies. I had before this received intelligence of the same nature from other quarters, and I at once telegraphed to the Resident at Hyderabad asking him to send down some horse to the frontier to which he at once acceded. I send copy of his reply.

2. Captain Ansley and the Sebundies are about to march up to Juggiahpett, and Ragapore, and I trust that the Rohillas hearing we are prepared for them will respect our frontier.
