Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 1st March 1859.

No. 13. Read the following letter from J. COLEBROOK, Esq., Zillah Surgeon of Madura; to D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq., Deputy Secretary to Government, dated 11th February 1859.

SIR,

I have the honor to report on Petition No. 69 of 1859, referred to me by you, for that purpose.

The prisoner Ramasawmy Naick was on 23rd September 1854, incarcerated in the Jail pending, I believe, the further orders of the Foujdaree Udalut. From the Jail Records I find that his case was No. 32 of 1854, upon the file of the Madura Sessions Court. Since his confinement, the prisoner has conducted himself quietly and rationally. I have never found in him any symptom of mental infirmity alluded to in the Petition.

No. 14. ORDER THEREON, No. 266; dated 26th February 1859.

It is observed that the prisoner Ramaswamy Naick was proved to have killed his mother and three more persons and to have wounded others. He was acquitted by the Foujdaree on the ground of insanity, but the Government do not consider that he should ever be allowed to go at large, however rational he may appear to be. He will therefore be confined for life, and will remain in the Madura Jail until arrangements can be made for his removal to a Lunatic Asylum.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

infirmity alluded to in the Petition.

It is observed that the Prisoner Ramswamy Naich was proved to have killed his brother and three ^{more} ~~other~~
persons and then wounded others.
He was acquitted by the Judge and the pound of infamy - but he pro-doubt consider that he should be allowed to go at large however rational he may appear etc. He will then be confined for life,
and will remain in the Madhouse
till until arrangements can be made for his removal to a lunatic asylum.
