Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 1st March 1859.

Read the following Petition.

No. 45. To the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, &c. &c. &c., Fort Saint George.

The humble Petition of Cochurilacotah Vencata Sooba Row, Pairrauzoo and Bulliah, sons of Ramabramhum, the 1st prisoner in case No. 7 of 1858, on the file of the Commissioner's Court of Rajahmundry.

With profound respect and submission, petitioners beg to state that their father had been charged in the said Court, by some malicious parties, and though the charge was not sufficiently proved at the examination, the Commissioner with slight attention upon the merits of the proofs, sentenced petitioners' father (the said prisoner) to be transported, and confiscated whole of the property. But with regard to the cases of Copilla Soobba Reddy and others who were really charged with having been the principals of rebellion and of committing murder, and were hanged, the said Commissioner did not issue such order of confiscation of properties, but restored them to their heirs. While so, you may easily convince that, it is greatly improper to take the said property in attachment.

Besides, the Commanding Officer had, on a certain night, come to petitioners' house and stating that some papers may be found among the records, had carried some boxes and dufters, containing several accounts and other private letters; but though nothing was found in them as he alleged, the said things are not returned. Not only several accounts and letters of petitioners' own, there are several documents in them belonging to Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co., petitioners therefore pray that you will be merciful enough to order the restoration of the property to which petitioners are inherited, and issue an order that all the papers carried from the house may be returned together with the produce in the land until the restoration.

In doing this act of charity petitioners as in duty shall ever pray.

ORDER THEREON, No. 283; dated 1st March 1859.

Petitioner complains that, on his father's apprehension on the charge of complicity in the rebellious designs of Soobba Reddy and others on the Rajahmundry frontier, certain boxes and dufters were carried off from his house by the Officers of Government, and have not been returned to his family, although the contents are merely accounts and letters relating to matters of business. He prays that these may be restored, and that the sentence of entire confiscation of his father's property may be remitted, in mercy to himself and his younger brothers, and in consideration of the fact, that his father was not charged as a principal rebel.

2. The Government observe that the retention of the papers referred to is improper. The Magistrate will adopt immediate steps to effect their restitution. In regard to the second point, the Government are pleased to remit the sentence of confiscation as prayed for, on the grounds alleged by them in reducing the term of imprisonment, in Extract Minutes Consultation, No. 142, dated 3rd February 1859.
