no 1157
Before copied

Some interesting reports of the discovery of the burial place of the many persons who were executed in the year 1794. It is stated that the bones of the persons who have been buried here since from the execution, and are on two stone pillars. These are the only remains in which a burial place might be found. & the persons having been imbured in the late rebellion or war, of this was a complicated plan to consider as having been persons under the Royal Commission.
