Under the circumstances
mentioned in the foregoing letter, I request the Superintendent of Customs to provide for the transmission of the reports in question by a sailing vessel, proceeding direct to San Francisco, as soon as possible.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. B. Thompson

San Francisco, 1843

Dear Mother
 I have just received your letter of the 11th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have been thinking much of late about the future and the many changes that are coming upon the world.
 I feel that we must be prepared for the worst and do all we can to help our fellow men.
 I am, dear Mother, your affectionate son,
 John Doe
