Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 12th April 1859

No. 22 Read the following Extract Minutes Consultation in the Military Department, dated 1st April 1940, No. 1244.

There were many signs of a hard frost that afternoon. The temperature of the air was dropping and the sun was shining brightly. The wind was blowing from the north and the clouds were white and fluffy. The ground was covered with a thin layer of snow and the trees were bare and dark. The sky was blue and clear and the sun was shining brightly. The wind was blowing from the north and the clouds were white and fluffy. No. 1243.

Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, 1st April 1859.

Read letter from the Quarter Master General of the Army, Fort Saint George, 30th March 1859,
No. 149; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

I am desired by the Command-in-Chief to report, that in consequence of its having been found, that supplies can be forwarded at the post of Timmy in North Canada, it has been determined to put the Detachment there, instead of withdrawing it to Inglepit as was originally intended, an arrangement, in the propriety of which His Excellency concurs.

Communicated to the Judicial Department.
