Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 29th April 1859

No. 7 Read the following letter from the Honorable D. ARBUTHNOTT, Collector of Kandy, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 22nd March 1859, No. 14.

Sir,

In my letter of the 10th ultimo, No. 8, I had the honor to report that 3 Sowars of the Kandy Irregular Horse were wounded by the Rajahs of Kaddana in the Deepad Talook, of whom one was mortally wounded. This individual died shortly afterwards and has left a young widow and a son requiring a good amount of support.

On a former occasion Government were pleased to confer a pension of 5 Rupees per mensem on the widow of a Sowar who was killed attacking the insurgent Pongar Nankamreddy. I have the honor therefore to beg that a similar pension of 5 Rupees may be granted to Khadut Dey, widow of the deceased Sowar Mahomed Hake.

No. 8. — (Kandy Division, No. 540, dated 20th April 1859.)

Resolved that the application be submitted for the favorable consideration of the Government of India.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Ordered that the following letter be despatched.

No. 9. To the Secretary to the Government of India, dated Fort St. George, 20th April 1859, No. 550.

Sir,

I am directed to submit for the consideration of the Supreme Government the case of Khadut Dey, widow of a deceased Sowar of the Kandy Irregular Horse, on whose behalf the Collector of Kandy has preferred an application for the grant of a pension of 5 Rupees per mensem.

2. The death of the Sowar, whose name was Mahomed Hake, was occasioned by a mortal wound received by him while on active duty. He formed one of a party of 3 Kandy Sowars who were patrolling during the night in the neighbourhood of the village of Kaddana at the time of the arrival of a body of Rajahs, as reported in No. 8, 10th February last, No. 225. While the Sowars were on the act of breaking up their house at departure of the 6th of that month, they were suddenly attacked by some Rajahs. Three of the Sowars were wounded—namely, Mahomed Hake mortally. The Collector states that he died shortly afterwards and has left a young widow and a son requiring a good amount of support.

3. The Honorable D. Arbuthnot, in making the application, cites as a precedent a case where a similar pension of Rupees 5 was granted to the widow of a Sowar, belonging to the same Corps, who was killed in the attack on Mahomed Nankamreddy, who was killed in the attack on the insurgent Pongar Nankamreddy. Under the circumstances of the case Government recommended the grant of the pension indicated, to have effect from the death of the deceased.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
