No. 307.

REPORT OF THE CIVIL AUDITOR.

The Civil Auditor has the honor to report, that privilege leave having been granted to Mr. Cowar, entitles him to full pay, unless Government is put to extra expense in consequence. Should Government think fit to remunerate Mr. Shaw, while acting for Mr. Cowar, the amount allotted will have to be deducted from Mr. Cowar's Abstract, unless the sum available from the second Judge's salary, who is at present on leave under Sections IV & V of the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, be appropriated to this purpose.

When Mr. Cowar's application for leave was sent to this Office for report, the Civil Auditor stated in his Report No. 224 dated 15th Ultimo, that Mr. Cowar would have to revert to his substantive appointment, by which Mr. Shaw would be virtually thrown out of employment; but in granting the leave, this point has apparently been lost sight of. Mr. Cowar having been granted leave without any intimation being given to him, that a portion of his pay would be taken to remunerate his locum tenens, it is questionable, whether this could with justice now be done.

So long as the 2nd Judge's appointment remains by his absence, vacant, his half salary which is forfeited would in fact prevent the State from incurring any extra expense, even though Mr. Shaw was remunerated.
