

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
from 10th to 24th June 1859.

The Commissioner of Police on the Petition of Appaswamy Pillay, Dated 25th April 1859, to the address of His Excellency the Governor, by the Deputy Secretary to Government, under date 12th May 1859, and as Interpreter in the office of the Commissioner of Police, for 12 years and 8 months, and in the performance of his duty he is an able, intelligent, hard working man. At the present time he is on sick leave, and his salary is Rs. 50 per month, the pay of his papers Rs. 25.

and, when the Interpreter is absent from office, he is generally called to of Duffadar Appaswamy is a woman of middle age, tall and of

she had a violent quarrel with her husband on account of alleged immorality but a legal bond was broken. Since that period she has been some character and is supposed to have had connection with Sanny and the Duffadar and his wife appeared before me, he accused Sanny into his house and of having violently assaulted and seized his wife, and on this Sanny Pillay was suspended from office and the case was referred to the Magistrate and in due course the case was brought on for trial. A sentence and extract from the Magistrate's summons book, with which and by the Magistrate of the Rajapettah Police Court are herewith the trial of the case of one of the Members of the Firm of Sanny Pillay was granted leave for one month, that period has now expired and he has continued until his case is disposed of.

On consideration of the case and the evidence that the case is of a serious nature, I recommended that Sanny Pillay be put

(Signed) J. C. BOULDERSON,
Commissioner of Police.

by the Honorable the Governor, dated 30th May 1859. Sundry, he has refused to pay the fine of Rs. 100 on to the Government, and in the face of this fine and of Colonel's command that any further measures should be taken against (Signed) C. E. TRIVELIAN.

Order passed, 16th June 1859, No. 442.

The Government accede to the recommendation of the Commissioner of Police in favor of Sanny Pillay, and direct that he return to his duty.

(Signed) T. PITCHAY,
Chief Secretary.

Ref. F. Cardale.

as only (Madras 26).
Sanny will be satisfied, when the case is disposed of, as he is generally called to do.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
from 18th to 24th June 1859.

No. 1. First Report of the Commissioner of Police on the Petition of Appaswamy Pillay, Defendant of Police, dated 25th April 1859, to the address of His Excellency the Governor, referred for report by the Deputy Secretary to Government, under date 13th May 1859, No. 1674.

1. Appaswamy Pillay is a widow, and an interpreter in the office of the Commissioner of Police. He has been in the service for 12 years and 6 months, and in the performance of his duty he gave much satisfaction. He is an able, intelligent, hard working man. At the present time he is affording in a situation of which the salary is Rs. 50 per month, the pay of his present appointment is only Rs. 25.

2. Being well qualified, when the interpreter is absent from office, he is generally called to supply his place.

3. Ponnammal the wife of Deceased Appaswamy is a woman of middle age, tall and of strong build.

4. About 3 years ago she had a violent quarrel with her husband on account of alleged infidelity to her and on that occasion her a small head was broken. Since that period she has been considered a woman of loose character and is supposed to have had connection with Sany Pillay and others.

5. On the 6th April last the Deceased and his wife appeared before me, he accused Sany Pillay of having trespassed into his house and of having violently assaulted and seized his wife.

6. The charge was a serious one. Sany Pillay was suspended from office and the complaint was sent before a Magistrate and in due course the case was brought on for trial. A copy of the examination and evidence and extract from the Magistrate's summary book, with which I have been obligingly favoured by the Magistrate of the Rajahmundry Police Court are herewith forwarded.

7. A few days after the trial at the instance of one of the Members of the Town of Boys and C. S. Subramanyam, Sany Pillay was granted leave for one month, that period has now expired but his absence from office will be continued until his case is disposed of.

8. Having taken all the circumstances of the case into consideration and believing that the Deceased and his wife are not deserving of credit, I recommended that Sany Pillay be permitted to return to his duty.

Madras, Police Commissioner's Office, 13th May 1859. (Signed) J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police.

No. 2. Report by the Honorary Magistrate, dated 20th May 1859.

If Sany Pillay has afforded, he has offered his punishment in the shape of a fine of 100 Rupees which has been given to the Government, and in the face of this fact and of Colonel Boulderson's report, I cannot recommend that any further measures should be taken against him.

(Signed) C. E. TRIVELLYAN.

No. 3. Order in Council, 16th June 1859, No. 441.

The Government accede to the recommendation of the Commissioner of Police in favor of Sany Pillay, and direct that he return to his duty.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Ed. F. Cardale.

700000/1

consideration and believing that the Duffadar and his wife were not deserving of credit, I remain anxious that Jaising Bhatia be permitted to return to his duty.

Commissioner of Police

Muzam Police Commission
Office 17. May 1859.

Report of the Commissioner of Police on the Petition of Jaising Bhatia.
Duffadar of Police dated 25th April 1859 to the address of His Excellency the Governor referred for report by the Deputy Secretary to Government under date 13th May 1859. 1859/59

Jaising Bhatia is a Hindu, and an Inspector in the Office of the Commissioner of Police. He has been in the service for 12 years and 6 months, and in the performance of his duty he gives much satisfaction.
He is an able, intelligent hard worker.

At the present time he is attending in a situation of which the salary is Rs. 50 per month.
The pay of his proper appointment is

is only (Page 25).

2. Being well qualified, when the Interpreter is absent from Office, he is generally called to supply his place.

3. Concerning the wife of Daffadar. Appanamma, is a woman of middle age, tall and of strong build.

4. About 3 years ago she had a violent quarrel with her husband on account of alleged infidelity by her, and on that occasion her infidelity bond was broken. Since that period she has been considered a woman of loose character and is supposed to have had connections with Sanny Pally and others.

5. On the 6th of April last the Daffadar and his wife appeared before me. He accused Sanny Pally of having seduced, with his hands

Madras
to act

in Port of Madras, that on the 1st of April in the year of our Lord One Eight Hundred and Fifty nine, on the 1st of April, Sanny Pally is convicted by Madras, Sanny Pally is convicted by Madras, one of the Magistrate's Justice Peace and Magistrate of Police for the Madras, for that he, the said Sanny Pally on Sunday the 3rd day of April in the year of our Lord 1859 in the City of Madras, did commit an assault upon the person of one of Madras. Married woman and she is the said Sanny Pally, for his said offence and pay the sum of Company's Rupees One Hundred, and if the said sum of Company's Rupees One Hundred be not paid forthwith, for the same he be liable by distress and sale of the land and Chattels of the said Sanny Pally, and of sufficient distress. Judge the said Court.

top
74/3

1/1

For Amos. C. G.
My father and Mother

[illegible]

compensation. The Commissioner's belief of the statements of the Pet and his wife (the Prosecutors), and the commentation in the press upon the same, are wholly irreconcilable with a decision which reflects so seriously upon the individuals concerned.
The fact remains to suggest the existing Magistrate
of the Third District
to report upon the case.
As it came before him,
these particulars as to his reason for committing
the offence with no fear of a penalty. If, as is believed, this man was formerly employed in the Disruption Police Court, the Magistrate should state how he conducted himself during that time -
the same thing will continue, as at present,

without delay, pending
the result of this reference.

L. P.

To Senior Magt.
will get To Com: Police

of the King's-press. The
are however of course
of the King's-press.

7. It has been said that the
at the instance of one of the
of the King's-press. The
of the King's-press.

8. It has been said that the
of the King's-press. The
of the King's-press.

9. It has been said that the
of the King's-press. The
of the King's-press.