80, Copies of the accompanying Book (Volume of Lists of allowed Indian applicants) were received on the 9th Instant from the Home Government wherein the letter mentioned from Lord Stanley on the 21st June 1859, intimated that the distribution of Volume of Lists would be made in the accompanying Packages of Goods. And as no such letter has been received for the present supply, it is therefore supposed that part of the Regiments in the above letter might be a clerical error.

Steps are requested whether the present supply may be distributed according to the Returns of Government for 1862 or a distribution List be forwarded.
