Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, from 9th to 15th July 1859.

Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, Public Department.

In reference to the leave of absence on Medical Certificate, granted to Mr. Goodwyn, Civil and Sessions Judge of Salem, for 18 months, viz., for 9 months and 7 days under Clause 5, Section VI of the Civil Absentee Rules on £1,000 a year when he would vacate his appointment, and also for 8 months and 23 days under Clause 6 of the same Section on £500—Mr. Goodwyn having had a previous leave of 1 year, 2 months, and 25 days under Section VI—decides, that the view taken by the Civil Auditor is correct, viz., that the leave could only be granted under Sections VII and VIII of the Rules, in effect reducing the period, during which Mr. Goodwyn could draw £1,000 a year and retain his appointment, from 9 months and 7 days to 6 months—and remarks, that although a first leave for 15 months may, on its being certified to be absolutely necessary, be extended to 18 months, or two years, its non-extension affords no grounds for deviating from the Rule laid down in Section VII.

(Here enter 1st June 1859, No. 20.)

No. 33.

ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1859, No. 961.

Resolved that the above Despatch be communicated to the Civil Auditor, who will report on what date Mr. Goodwyn will vacate his appointment as Civil and Session Judge of Salem under the order of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State.
