2. If I am right in supposing that para. 221 of the Rules for the Covenanted Service as contained in the Civil Auditor's Manual (nullified as to period for pension by the last portion of para. 203), applies to the period required to entitle one to furlough, I request I may be allowed in January 1860 to take a furlough for 2 years, as I shall then D. V. have completed an actual residence of 10 years, 8 in India and 2 above the age of 17 at " Hertford College."

3. If it is disallowed that I shall thus at the end of 1859, be entitled to the 3 years' furlough, I request I may be permitted at once to take up the one year's furlough granted to those who have been 7 years resident in India.

4. In consideration of my distance from Madras, I also request that I may be granted at least 2 months preparatory leave and as 3 months of accumulated privilege leave are now due to me, I request that this 3 months be granted me under Section XII, and that I may be permitted to embark when convenient to me within that period.
