No. 95. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. WOOD, Bart., Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council, dated London, 6th July 1860, No. 23.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 6th of April (No. 13) 1860, and to express my approval of your orders for the transfer of all convicted Prisoners, European and Native, from the Grand Gaol to the Penitentiary.

2. On accommodation being also provided in the Penitentiary for Prisoners committed for trial, or on requisition of security, I conclude that the Grand Gaol will be disposed of.

No. 96. ORDER THEREON, 13th August 1860, No. 1,017.

Communicated to the Commissioner of Police.

2. It is observed that when the Prisoners referred to in paragraph 2 of this Despatch have been transferred to the Penitentiary, a place of confinement will still be required for Civil Debtors. The Commissioner will suggest any arrangement that may occur to him, which would provide a Prison for them and allow the Grand Gaol being disposed of.
