I am directed to forward copies of the correspondence, noted in the margin, relative to the loss of a Government Promissory Note, No. 18,369 of the five per cent. loan of 1856-57 for Rupees 1,500.

On the 23rd January following, on the Administrator General applying for the return of the Note, it was intimated to him that the letter covering it had not been received at the Office of the Accountant General. Upon this inquiries were made, which have not, however, led to the recovery of the Note.

3. According to the Registers of the Account Office, the missing Note, No. 18,369 of 1856-57 was issued in favor of Mr. M. Stirling—and the last payment of interest, up to 31st August 1858, was made to Mr. R. Breithaupt, to whose Estate it belonged.

In the Notification, 3rd June 1856, by the Accountant General to the Government of India, it is stated that 'applications for Duplicate Notes are not ordinarily entertained, until the expiration of two years from the date of the last advertisement of the loss.' In reference to this requirement, the Administrator General has represented that he is bound to distribute the

Some delay has subsequently occurred in obtaining the execution of the Indemnity Bond—and the Administrator has since stated that the time has arrived for closing the account of the Estate. I am to request that, under these circumstances, the Government of India may be moved to issue instructions to the Loan Office for the immediate grant of a Duplicate of the lost Note.
