CONSTRUCTIONS OF ACT VIII of 1859.

Question.	Answer.
an a claim to attached property ed before one District Moonsiff be up under Section 6, and transferred posal to another District Moonsiff?	The Section referred to relates to suits, and not to petitions. There is no provision of the Act under which a claim preferred to property attached by one Court, can be called up and referred to another Court for investigation.
y what officer should enquiry be and what punishment inflicted upon s interfering with or opposing the ement of a process of attachment issua District Moonsiff under Section 84, III of 1859, prior to the passing of a in a suit?	The offence of resistance to the process of a District Moonsiff is punishable, as heretofore, under Section V, Act XIX of 1855.
Vith reference to the Sudder Court's uction of the 17th ultimo, is any ılar limit of time to be allowed for ıyment of Batta for serving the Resnt with a notice, in default of which peal is not to be admitted?	It is clearly the duty of the Appellant with his appeal to provide the means of serving a notice upon the Respondent. No Memorandum of appeal, therefore, should be brought on the Court's Register of appeals, unless the requisite Batta is deposited within the time limited by the Act for appealing.

he Sudder Court resolve to draw attention to the rule which requires that all ons submitted for their decision shall be accompanied by the opinions of the Judges.
