Proceedings of the Madras Government Judicial Department,
8th October 1860.

No. 57. Read the following letter from J. T. MACLAGAN, Esq., Agent, Great Southern of India Railway, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, Madras, dated Negapatam, 27th September 1860, No. 209.

I have the honor to request that you will take the necessary steps to obtain from Government a License for the Cash Peons and Watchmen in the employ of the Company to carry a musket or sword when on duty under the Arms Act No. XXXIII of 1860.

The Arms Act alluded to by the Agent is No. XXXI of 1860, and as the Government have the power under Section XXVII to exempt "such other persons" as they may think fit from the provisions of Sections XXV and XXVI, I submit this letter for their orders.
