PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from C. PELLY, Esq., Member of the Board of Revenue, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 13th September 1860, No. 506 :—

Sir,

1. The Kasba towns of the four new Táluqs of South Canara are at present as follows :—

Táluq.	Kasba.
1. Mangalore.	Mangalore.
2. Udipi.	Udipi.
3. Békul.	Kassergóde.
4. Putúr.	Putúr.

2. I have the honor to request the sanction of Government for naming the Békal Táluq after its Kasba, Kassergóde, and for changing the Kasba of Putúr Táluq to a place called Upinangáddi, as recommended by the late Collector Mr. Fisher, and the present Collector Mr. Fraser, and that the Táluq take the name of Upinangáddi, if this change is sanctioned.

3. Mr. Fraser is strongly opposed to changing the names of these two Táluqs, but there are no special reasons in these cases for departing from the rule laid down by Government. He notices that "the Táluq names have been long in existence "and are associated in the minds of the people with definite "divisions and boundaries, which new names would not "be ;" but he forgets that the boundaries of the old Táluqs have been now changed by the late amalgamations.

Dated 18th August 1860.

4. The reasons assigned by Mr. Fisher for changing the Kasba of Putúr to Upinangádi, and coincided in by Mr. Fraser are, that the "position is central, on an important line of road, "and at the point which will hereafter become the navigable head of the Natrawatti, whilst it "commands the point at which the Comardavy flows into that river." The Board have coincided in this view.

In letter to Board of Revenue, dated 17th December 1859, No. 214, paragraph 3.

5. Mr. Fraser at first objected to the proposed change as it would involve the construction of a new Kacheri. But he subsequently changed his opinion, finding that the Putúr Kacheri was in a ruinous condition and that as a new Kacheri must be built, he considered Upinángáddi as the best place. A new Kachari has been sanctioned.

Letter 22nd June 1860, paragraph 4.
Do. 20th July 1860.

6. Mr. Fraser recommended the Kasba of the new Táluq of Mangalore being removed to Buntwal as it would place the Tahsíldár in a more central position, and save the appointment of a Town Magistrate ; but Mangalore is decidedly the proper place for the Tahsíldár.

Letter 22nd June 1860, paragraph 3.

Order thereon, 9th October 1860, No. 1,825.

1. In this letter, Mr. Pelly proposes to name the Békal táluq of South Canara after its Kasba Kassergóde ; also to change the Kasba of the Putúr táluq of the same district to Upinangáddi as recommended by the late and present Collectors, and to call the táluq by that name.

2. The present Collector, it is stated, objects to any change in the names of the two táluqs above mentioned, but Mr. Pelly remarks that there are no special reasons for departing from the rule in such cases.

3. The change of the Kasba of the Putúr táluq to Upinangáddi has already been assented to in the Order of November 19th 1859, No. 1,575. Mr. Pelly's proposal to name this and the Békal táluqs after their respective Kasbas, is approved.

4. Adverting to paragraph 6, the Government agree with Mr. Pelly that Mangalore is the proper place for the Kasba of the táluq of that name.

5. The names of the new táluqs in South Canara and their Kasbas will be as follow :—

Taluqs.	Kasbas.
Mangalore.	Mangalore.
Udipi.	Udipi.
Kassergóde.	Kassergóde.
Upinangáddi.	Upinangáddi.
