Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 20*th October* 1860.

No. 134. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 19th October 1860, No. 123.

1. I have the honor to report that the ward on the north-west corner of the Penitentiary, which is to be set aside for the reception of prisoners committed for trial, is sufficiently completed to admit of their being securely lodged therein.

2. Orders have been issued to the Superintendent of the Penitentiary to admit into that Jail the Sheriff of Madras whenever he may desire admittance or to admit any Officer whom he may send there on duty, on such person producing a pass for that purpose from that Officer.

No. 135 ORDER THEREON, 20th October 1860, No. 1,360.

Resolved, in reference to the Order of Government, 6th August last, No. 982, that the Sheriff of Madras be directed to forward all prisoners committed for trial before Her Majesty's Supreme Court, who now are, or may hereafter be in his custody, to the Madras Penitentiary. A separate ward has there been prepared for their reception, and the Officers in charge of the Penitentiary are directed to afford the Sheriff access to it at all times, and give him every facility for satisfying himself as to the proper accommodation and safe custody of the prisoners confined in it.

2. The Government will pass separate orders in respect to the pensioning of Mr. Gibbs, Keeper of the Grand Jail. Meanwhile they resolve to furnish the Sheriff with a copy of Colonel Boulderson's letter of the 6th February last, No. 19, and to request him to communicate with that Officer, in view to their suggesting how such an arrangement as that proposed by the Commissioner of Police for placing the appointments of Keeper of the Grand Jail, and Keeper of the Penitentiary on a proper footing, on Mr. Gibb's retirement, may best be carried out.

Letter paragraph 6.

Chief Secretary.
