No. 147. OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

The Superintendent of Marine has the honor to acknowledge Official Memorandum from the Chief Secretary of the 12th instant, (received this day) No. 374, inquiring relative to a discrepancy between the number of Native Convicts embarked in the "Alexander Baring" and those certified by Captain Forlong to have been landed.

2. The number embarked was 5 male and 2 female Convicts, and Captain Forlong on the 5th September last, certifies to the correctness of the receipt of the Assistant Jailor at Moulmein for that number of males and one female. The other female Begavada* Venkamah died of Cholera in the Jail at Rangoon to which port the vessel first proceeded.

* Proceedings of Government 12th June 1860, No. 742.

3. Appended are copies of the documents proving the due delivery of the six Convicts and the death of the seventh, the originals being attached to the bill for the balance of passage money.

No. 148. To the Commissioner, Tenasserim and Martaban Provinces, Moulmein, dated Fort Saint George, 22nd October 1860, No. 1,368.

Your letter, 31st August last, No. 58, gave cover to another, dated 27th idem, from the Superintendent of Convicts, Province Amherst, reporting the arrival from Madras of five Convicts per "Alexander Baring."

2. According to a receipt, dated 25th idem, granted by the Jailer, and countersigned by Captain Forlong on the 5th September (which was produced to the Superintendent of Marine, Madras, in support of the bill for the balance of passage money) six Convicts were landed a Moulmein. One Convict, a female, Bejavada Venkamah, having died at Rangoon en route the number actually embarked at Madras, viz., seven, as stated in my letters quoted in you letter under reply, is fully accounted for.

3. In pointing out this discrepancy between Captain Forlong's report and the Jailer's receipt, I am desired to ask which is correct, and if the former, what has become as far as i known, of the sixth Convict.

4. I am directed to request that, in future communications reporting arrivals of Convicts you would be so good as to report any casualties, which may occur during the voyage unt landing at Moulmein.
