Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
24*th October* 1860.

No. 159. Read the following letter from E. B. THOMAS, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 11th October 1860, No. 56.

1. With reference to my letter of the 2nd instant, No. 52, I beg to forward copy of a further application for License for possessing Arms, and request Government Orders thereon.

2. It will be observed that Mr. Braddock possesses a great many Arms, and I submit for the consideration of Government, whether it is not necessary that some restriction should be enjoined as to the number of Arms to be possessed by any one individual.

From JOHN BRADDOCK, Esq., to E. B. THOMAS, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, dated 2nd October 1860.

I was informed to-day that it was necessary to hold a License for the Fire Arms, &c., in my possession. Will you be good enough to grant me a License for the undermentioned:

One double barrel fowling piece.
One single do. do. do.
One do. do. rifle.
One Revolver (Deane's and Adams.)
One do. (Colt's.)
One Staff Officer's sword.
Five Shikaree knives.
One Bear spear.
Two Hog's spears.

If it is not necessary that I should have a License, please let me know.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) E. B. THOMAS,
Magistrate.

No. 160. ORDER THEREON, 24th October 1860, No. 1,373.

The Magistrate of Coimbatore has already been informed that the mere possession of Arms does not require to be protected by a License. The License referred to in Section XXXI, Act XXXI, 1860, is for permission to "carry Arms" or "go armed."

2. There can however be no objection to grant Mr. Braddock a License in the form lately supplied to the Magistrate for the Arms specified in his letter, and it will save him from any risk of being questioned in respect of his carrying these Arms.

3. The Government see nothing unreasonable in the number of Arms in possession of Mr. Braddock, viz., a sword and brace of Revolvers, a single and double barrelled fowling piece, rifle, and some hunting knives and spears.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
