No. 38. Read the following letter from P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Malabar, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Calicut, 29th October 1860, No. 72.

There is a great demand for Sulphur required for the many Hindu Feasts. Some principal Feasts come on in about 15 days, and applications for Sulphur have been made to this Office by some of the Rajas, but under existing rules the demand cannot be met, as no one has as yet applied for a License. Am I permitted to meet the emergency temporarily by allowing the purchase of the article from certain Merchants whose store is for the present under the Magistrate's seal? The Merchants are suspicious about undertaking the sale of Sulphur, as the Orders of Government are so stringent. This feeling will wear away in a short time, but if we do not supply the existing wants, recourse may be had to underhand means to do so, and this we should endeavor to prevent.
