MRO 1 -30,000 -16-10 29.

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Judicial DEPARTMENT

G.O. No. 1452 Press.
55-56 Mis.

Dated 7 — 11 — 1856

Not to be folded or roughly handled

at he stated that he had referred the question to Government.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obed.t Servt

[illegible]

subject of Mr. Clarkes allowances while proceeding to join a new and superior appointment.

I beg to add that I made reply to Mr. Clarkes letter of October 19th at

so long as detained for the public convenience at Combaconum should be allowed to draw the full salary of his new appointment.— Chapter V Section XXIII of the Absentee rules is so plain, and is applicable so universally that there was no necessity for soliciting the orders of Government on the—

Who.

from the 23rd of August.

3. In regard to the time occupied in joining. When the objection to pass the full salary of the new appointment—was made, I was not aware that only one day had been occupied in joining, and the difference in pay for one day is a small matter but the principle reported of Mr Clarkes being only entitled to his old salary while joining is I would submit correct—
The Speciality of Mr. Clarkes Case as reported in my letter of August 23d for the orders of Government and as sanctioned (as I understand it) by those orders was that Mr. Clarke

Co. Rlt.

I have &c Collr & Magr.

Fort Saint George,
Civil Audit Office,
2nd November 1860.

Fins Dept.

No. 1270.

From

W. Balmain, Esqre.
Offg Civil Auditor.

To

T. Pycroft, Esqre.
Chief Secretary to Govt.

Sir,

1. I respectfully by the orders of Government No. 1384 of October 26th I have the honor to report on the matter of the allowances of Mr. R. G. Clarke Judge of Negapatam.

2. When the retrenchment was first made the only information before me was a letter of Mr. Clarke's reporting having made over charge of the Court at Combaconum on the 22nd August and another letter reporting having opened the Court at Negapatam on October 1st. In his letter of October 8th Mr. Clarke further explained that he had joined at Negapatam "forthwith," and in his letter of October 19th he further states that he joined his new station on the 23rd of August the day after leaving Combaconum. Under this explanation his full salary can be passed from the 23rd of August.

3. In regard to the time occupied in joining. When the objection to pass the full salary of the new appointment was made, I was not aware that only one day had been occupied in joining, and the difference in pay for one day is a small matter, but the principle asserted of Mr. Clarke's being only entitled to his old salary while joining is, I would submit, correct. The speciality of Mr. Clarke's case as reported in my letter of August 22nd for the Orders of Government and as sanctioned (as I understand it) by those Orders, was that Mr. Clarke so long as detained for the public convenience at Combaconum should be allowed to draw the full salary of his new appointment. Chapter V, Section XXIII of the Absentee Rules is so plain, and is applied so universally that there was no necessity for soliciting the Orders of Government on the subject of Mr. Clarke's allowances while proceeding to join a new and superior appointment.

4. I beg to add that I made no reply to Mr. Clarke's letter of October 19th, as he stated that he had referred the question to Government.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 7th November 1860.

No. 55. Read the following letter from W. BALMAIN, Esq., Officiating Civil Auditor, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 2nd November 1860, No. 1,270.

1. As required by the Orders of Government No. 1,384 of October 26th, I have the honor to report on the matter of the allowance of Mr. R. G. Clarke, Judge of Negapatam.

2. When the retrenchment was first made, the only information before me was a letter of Mr. Clarke's reporting having made over charge of the Court at Combaconum on the 22nd August, and another letter reporting having opened the Court at Negapatam on October 1st. In his letter of October 8th, Mr. Clarke further explained that he had joined at Negapatam "forthwith," and in his letter of October 19th, he further states that he joined his new station on the 23rd of August the day after leaving Combaconum. Under this explanation his full salary can be passed from the 23rd of August.

3. In regard to the time occupied in joining. When the objection to pass the full salary of the new appointment was made, I was not aware that only one day had been occupied in joining, and the difference in pay for one day is a small matter, but the principle asserted of Mr. Clarke's being only entitled to his old salary while joining is, I would submit, correct. The speciality of Mr. Clarke's case as reported in my letter of August 22nd for the Orders of Government and as sanctioned (as I understand it) by those Orders, was that Mr. Clarke so long as detained for the public convenience at Combaconum should be allowed to draw the full salary of his new appointment. Chapter V, Section XXIII of the Absentee Rules is so plain, and is applied so universally that there was no necessity for soliciting the Orders of Government on the subject of Mr. Clarke's allowances while proceeding to join a new and superior appointment.

4. I beg to add that I made no reply to Mr. Clarke's letter of October 19th, as he stated that he had referred the question to Government.

No. 56.

ORDER THEREON, 7th November 1860, No. 1,452.

The Civil Auditor states that under the explanation furnished by Mr. Clarke, the full salary of Judge of Negapatam can be passed to him from the 23rd of August last. The Government desire that this may be accordingly done.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartlec e.

Order thereon 7th November 1860. No. 1462.

The Civil Auditor states that under the explanation furnished by the Civil Judge of Vizagapatam can be granted to him from the 25th of August last. The Govt. desire that this may be accordingly done.

To the Civil Auditor
R. G. Clarke Esq.
Civil Judge of Vizagapatam.

Supt. 7th