Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 1st December 1860.

No. 5. Read the following letter from Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, Commissioner of Police, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 30th November 1860.

I request you will do me the favor to inform His Excellency the Governor in Council, that circumstances render it necessary that I should return to England to rejoin my family there (my presence being necessary), early next year and that considering the length of time I have been in the Indian service, (uninterruptedly more than 37½ years, my advancing age, and the failure of strength and energy to which I must now necessarily look forward, it does not seem to me desirable that I should again resume an active official life in India, instead therefore of applying for a Furlough under the Regulations, I beg you to solicit the Governor in Council to permit me to resign the appointments which I have now the honor to hold under this Government, on my embarkation in one of the ships which will leave this Port for London during the last week of the present year or the first of that which is approaching.

1. Commissioner of Police.
2. President, Municipal Board.
3. Commissioner, Income Tax.

In thus making known my desire to retire from the Public Service and asking permission to do so, I respectfully trust I may be permitted to mention the fact that since the 30th day of November 1856 up to the present time, a period of 4 years, the full amount of my pension of £450 per annum as a retired Colonel of the Madras Army, has been regularly deducted from my Civil Salary as Commissioner of Police. The large sum of £1,800 or 18,000 Rupees which must otherwise have been disbursed on account of my pension has, therefore, been saved to the State during that interval. Such is the rule of the service and I do not, of course, here refer to it as a personal grievance, but I have taken the liberty to speak of it, because it seems to me to afford me fair and reasonable grounds for preferring a request that I may be admitted on retirement to the highest rate of pension which would be granted to me, were I an Uncovenanted Servant now retiring, viz., £500 per annum; by an addition of £50 per annum being paid to my Military Pension of £450.

I am fully sensible that it is not within the competency of this Government nor even I believe of the Government of India to grant a request of the above nature, but I trust that the Governor in Council will be pleased to forward my application for the favorable consideration of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, who has full power to comply with it, and who might feel disposed to sanction such a modest augmentation of my retiring allowances on account of my protracted services both Military and Civil, if the same were recommended by my superiors on the spot.

Trusting to be excused for having drawn the attention of the Governor in Council to this subject.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 1st December 1860, No. 1,582.

1. The Government permit Colonel Boulderson to resign his Offices as Commissioner of Police and Municipal Commissioner for the Town of Madras from the date of his embarkation for England.
2. The Government will have much pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India the meritorious conduct of Colonel Boulderson during his long course of service, and in supporting his application for an augmented rate of pension.

Chief Secretary.

* B.C.L. 20 Nov. 1856

STATEMENT of the Services of Brevet Colonel J. C. BOULDERSON, of the 35th Regt. N. I., from May 1823 to November, 1854, embracing a period of Military Service in India from 9th of August 1823 to 30th November 1856; being 33 years and 3 months; and afterwards as Commissioner of Police until the end of the year 1860.

Ensign.....2nd May 1823.
 Lieutenant.....8th September 1826.
 Captain.....2nd May 1838.
 Brevet Major.....11th November 1851.
 Regt. Major.....4th May 1853.
 Lt. Lieut.-Colonel.....9th December 1853.
 Lt. Colonel.....20th November 1854.

Ensign Boulderson embarked with his Regiment for Rangoon in 1826, thence proceeded with the 32nd Regiment N. I. to the newly conquered province of Tavoy, and shortly after arrival there, under the orders of the British Commissioner, was employed on a survey of part of that Province. The survey being suspended in March 1827, Lieutenant Boulderson rejoined his own Regiment at Penang.

In May 1827, he officiated as Brigade Major of Madras Troops at Penang, and continued in that situation until relieved by the Officer duly appointed thereto.

In September 1827, Lieut. B. was appointed Assistant to the Superintending Engineer and Inspector General of the Straits Settlements, and served under him until the Establishment was reduced by order of Lord Wm. Bentinck.

In 1832, Lt. B. commanded the Escort of Lieut.-Col. Briggs, the British Commissioner in Mysore, on the occasion of his proceeding into the Nuggur Provinces to quell an insurrection. The Escort consisted of a small detachment of 7th Light Cavalry, one Company of the 35th Regt. N. I., one Regiment of Mysore Horse, and one Regiment of Mysore Infantry. He continued on that duty until the surrender of the whole of the Insurgent Polygars. During the march after whom, Lieut. B. apprehended the Naigue* of the 35th Regt. N. I., who had thrown the dead body of a pig into the Musjid at Bangalore, which act had caused a great disturbance in that Garrison. The Naigue was subsequently tried by Court Martial, convicted, and shot.

The services of Lieut. B. were afterwards placed at the disposal of the Commissioner in Mysore, by request of Colonel Briggs, and on Colonel Briggs' removal from the Commission by Lord William Bentinck, he was at the instance of Colonel Briggs' successor, Mr. J. McLeod, Madras Civil Service, as a friend of Colonel Briggs, removed from the Commission, together with the Colonel's brother, Captain Briggs, 13th Regt. M. N. I.

Lieut. B. served with his Regiment during the Coorg War in April 1834, and commanded his Company, which formed part of the storming party at the assault and capture of Ramasawmy Cannaway on the 3rd April, and the Barrier beyond on the following day.

In October 1834, Lieut. B. was appointed to the command of the escort of the Resident at the Court of the Rajah of Tanjore, where he remained until September 1836.

In March 1838, Captain B. was appointed Assistant Superintending Engineer at the Presidency, and in December 1839 he was elected as Civil Engineer and Assessor to Her Majesty's Justices in Sessions, which situation he held until he embarked with his Regiment for Barmah, on the 31st March 1852.

In 1841, Captain B. was appointed to the General Staff of the Army as an Assistant Surveyor General, but was detained at the Presidency at the special requisition of the Justices, to complete some Public Works then in progress in the Town of Madras.

In October 1842, Captain B. acted as Superintending Engineer at the Presidency, during the absence of Colonel Underwood on leave. On the 1st February 1843, he was again appointed to officiate in the same situation, which he continued to hold until the month of April of the same year, when he was appointed by the Marquis of Tweeddale a Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Army.

In January 1843, Captain B. passed an Examination as Surveyor and Civil Engineer. Vide copy of Certificate appended.*

In March 1852, Brevet Major B. was appointed Deputy Judge Advocate General of the combined Forces then about to proceed on Field Service to Burmah.

Major B. embarked for Rangoon on the above duty on the 31st March 1852, and served with the Army during the whole of the second Burmese War. His name was favorably noticed by the Governor General, for services rendered during the operations in the vicinity of and at the capture of Rangoon, on the 12th, 13th and 14th of April 1852, when he acted as Quarter Master General of the Forces, on Major Allan being carried off the ground severely wounded. Vide G. O. G. G., dated Fort William, 27th May 1852.

Brevet Major B. received the thanks of the Government of India for services rendered at the capture of Passein on the 19th May 1852, where he was the only Officer of the General Staff of the Forces in attendance on Major General Godwin. Vide G. O. G. G., dated Fort William, 5th June 1852.

Brevet Major B. received the thanks of the Government of India for his services at the assault and capture of Pegu, on the 21st November 1852, when he attended Major General Godwin as a Field Assistant, in consequence of the Quarter Master General being absent at Prome. Vide G. O. G. G., dated Fort William, 6th December 1852.

On the breaking up of the Army of Ava, on the 31st July 1853, Major B.'s services as Deputy Judge Advocate General during the war were noticed by Major General Godwin, C. B., Commander of the Forces, and he received his thanks in General Orders in the following terms.

"To the Judge Advocate General, Major Boulderson, who has carried on with singular ability the Judicial Department, he is most indebted, and the Major General has had on various occasions his valuable assistance in the Field as a Staff Officer."

In August 1853, in consequence of Major B.'s promotion to be Major Regimentally, his services were placed at the disposal of the Commander in Chief, on which occasion his services were noticed in the following terms:

"His Excellency the Commander in Chief, on the occasion of your promotion to a Regimental majority, and consequent removal from the Department, has directed me to convey to you the expression of his unqualified approbation, for the very able, careful, and satisfactory manner you have always conducted the duties of your Office, extending over a continuous period of upwards of ten years."

Major B. was made a Brevet Lieutenant Colonel for his services in Burmah, vide G. O. G., dated .

On the occasion of Major B. embarking for Burmah, his services were noticed by Dated 6th March 1852. the Justices in a letter to Government,* in the following terms:

"The Justices in Sessions are anxious to take advantage of the present opportunity for placing upon record, and bringing under the notice of Government, the high sense which they entertain of the services which have been rendered to the Assessment Department by Major Boulderson, during his tenure of the Office of Assessor and Civil Engineer of the Town of Madras. The duties of the situation demand much personal

* This is to certify that Captain J. C. Boulderson, of the 35th Regt. N. I., has been frequently employed under me in every branch of Practical Surveying and levelling, and I consider him to possess an unusual degree of proficiency in both. Capt. Boulderson has for a period of no less than five years acted as my Assistant, and displayed a zeal and ability that I consider would qualify him for any situation whatever, in either the Engineer's or Quarter Master General's Office.

Supt. Engr. P. D.

exertion, unceasing activity of supervision, a conciliatory personal manner, and no small amount of intelligence, and the Justices feel it but a simple duty to Major Boulderson to testify that in every particular he has shone conspicuous. In discharging the functions of Assessor, there is much which is invidious that has to be performed, but he has managed to give entire satisfaction to the inhabitants. In the ordinary duties of keeping the roads and drains in a state of repair, Major Boulderson has exercised a vigilant supervision that has greatly tended to their efficiency. In more important works he has evinced a skill that reflects great credit upon his Engineering ability, and in the management of his office he has established a system of order, regularity, and checks, that eminently facilitates and renders efficient the conduct of its business. From all these qualities and labour, the Justices consider that a real benefit has resulted to the public of Madras, and they have much pleasure in bringing their view of Major Boulderson's services under the notice of Government."

On the 29th day of April 1856, Colonel B. was called from the Command of his Regiment, to perform the duties of Chief Superintendent of Police of the Town of Madras, and he was at the same time elected as Chairman of the Bench of Justices.

On the 1st of November of same year he accepted the Office of Commissioner of Police under the Provisions of the New Police Code Act No. XIII of 1856, and he was afterwards made one of the Magistrates of the Presidency Town.

On the 30th November of same year, Colonel Boulderson resigned the Military Service, on the Pension of Colonel, after having served 33 years and 3 months.

On the 30th of January 1857, Colonel B. was placed at the Head of the Board of Municipal Commissioners, which position, with the Commissionership of Police, he continued to hold until the close of the year 1860, when he tendered his resignation of the service of Government; upon accepting which, the Honorable the Governor in Council was pleased to issue the following order:—

1. "The Government permit Colonel Boulderson to resign his Office as Commissioner of Police and Municipal Commissioner for the Town of Madras, from the date of his embarkation for England."

2. The Government will have much pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, the meritorious conduct of Colonel Boulderson during his long course of service, and in supporting his application for an augmented rate of pension."

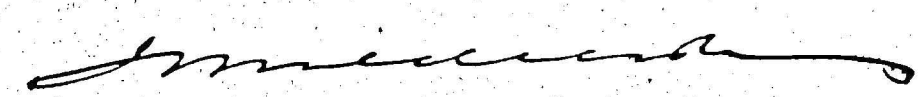

Various circumstances combined, at the time of Colonel B.'s assuming the appointments above mentioned, to render the discharge of the duties connected with them both critical and arduous.

The suppression of the Nabobship of the Carnatic, had occasioned a deep sensation among the Mussulman population of Madras, which was aggravated by the sudden disbandment of the Sepoys of the late Carnatic Circar (in number about 500), without any provision being made for their subsistence.

Soon after these occurrences, the breaking out of the terrible mutinies in Bengal caused great excitement throughout the whole body of the Native population, who were unfortunately irritated at the same time by the introduction of our present Municipal Act, XIV of 1856. Under these circumstances, the utmost caution and moderation were necessary, in order to prevent popular discontent from openly showing itself. In order to allay the ill-feeling current among the Mussulmans, Government, at Colonel B.'s suggestion, very wisely allowed him to receive into the Police Force a very large number of the disbanded Sepoys of the late Nabob, and likewise placed at his disposal upwards of 1,000 Rs. monthly, for distribution to the destitute people of that faith in Triplicane, and these measures were productive of an excellent effect. Colonel B. was thereby enabled to procure information and obtain assistance, which helped him to preserve the public peace unbroken during the troubles which took place elsewhere, when it was of vital importance that no riotous demonstrations should happen in this city.

Colonel B. was fortunate enough to obtain a very flattering expression of the approval with which his conduct, both of Municipal and Police affairs, was regarded by Sir Charles Trevelyan, on the occasion of His Excellency's departure from Madras.
