MS

No. 103. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Auditor, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 8th December 1860, No. 415.

General Department.

By paragraph 4 of Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 22nd January 1858, No. 114, the entertainment by the Commissioner of Police, of a Clerk on Rupees 50 per mensem, was temporarily authorized for duties connected with the operation of the Arms Act (XXVIII of 1857). This charge still continues, and I beg to bring it to the notice of Government for such further orders as they may deem necessary. If the permanent continuance of the Clerk be considered requisite, I would suggest that the sanction of the Supreme Government be obtained to the charge being brought on the fixed establishment, as its admission in the Contingent Department is informal.

No. 104. ORDER THEREON, 15th December 1860, No. 1,652.

Referred to the Commissioner of Police, who will report whether the services of the temporary Writer are required any longer under the Arms Act now in force. If so, he will give full explanation of the circumstances under which they are wanted, and for what period of time the Writer should be retained.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
