CIRCULAR.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Sudder Court, under date the 29th March 1860.

Read letter dated 21st instant, from the subordinate judge of Chicacole, applying for permission to review his judgments in certain cases, declaring the suits to be barred by Regulation VI of 1831, as claiming "Service Enams;" the Collector having since reported that the lands are "Charitable Enams," which are also exempted from the jurisdiction of the Courts, but by different enactments, viz., Regulation IV, and Act XXXI of 1836.

Under Chapter XI, Act VIII of 1859, the Lower Courts need not apply to the Sudder Court for permission to review their judgments. In cases like the present, where the error cannot affect either party, the Court which passed the decree may of its own motion review its judgment, without any application from the parties.
