*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
for the month of April 1860.*

No. 73. Read the following letter from R. R. COTTON, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Madura, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated 21st April 1860, No. 109.

I have the honor to enclose a Memorial to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, with its accompaniments, and to request that the same may be forwarded for his consideration.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE SIR CHARLES WOOD, BART.,
Secretary of State for India.

The humble Memorial of ROBERT ROLLAND
COTTON of the Madras Civil Service.

SHEWETH,

That your Memorialist entered the service in 1837, and in 1853, being then a Subordinate Judge, took a furlough, from which he returned in February 1856; that the Subordinate Judgeship of Rajahmundry being then vacant he applied for the appointment, but was informed that, owing to his standing in the service (18½ years), he was not likely ever to take it up, and therefore could not be appointed; and that moreover, from his position, there was every probability of his being confirmed in the higher grade, within the year; but the Civil and Session Court of Rajahmundry being then also temporarily vacant, he

* 18th March 1857. was appointed* to it; that being pressed to join without delay he † 10th April. did† so, at a great expense (which he might have avoided by delaying three days only, a cousin in command of a steamer having offered him a free passage to Cocanada), for your Memorialist having no permanent appointment, was declared not entitled to the usual travelling allowance.

2. In this position, with the extra work and responsibility of the upper Court, your Memorialist received but 58 Rupees per mensem, more than the Subordinate Judge† appointed, who never took up his appointment; though as above stated, one of the causes assigned for not acceding to your Memorialist's request to be appointed, was, that he would not take up the appointment, though in fact, on two occasions, for some time, he had charge of the Subordinate Court as well as the upper one.

3. After having acted as Civil and Session Judge for about 14 months, your Memorialist addressed Mr. Maltby, then Acting Secretary to Government, pointing out his position; that Mr. Copleston for whom he was acting was about to return, that consequently unless he could obtain, like his seniors, contemporaries, and juniors some permanent appointment, he would (at a distance of some 400 miles from the Presidency) be again thrown out of employ; that as to obtaining a confirmed appointment, in the higher grade, he saw no prospect of his doing so, for many months,‡ there being several seniors to
§ It was 19 months before he did so. be first provided for. To this Mr. Maltby replied,|| that
¶ See Appendix A. 30th May 1857. he had brought the contents of your Memorialist's letter to Lord Harris' notice, and was authorized by him to state, that on the arrangements consequent on Mr. Smollett's departure for England, he would be gazetted as Subordinate Judge of Salem.

4. About this period the Court of Faujdari Adalat, on a forged petition, purporting to be from the wife of one Rednum Dhurmaroyadoo, took exception to some of your Memorialist's proceedings, and recommended that he should be removed from his ¶ 4th July 1857. appointment, and your Memorialist was accordingly removed,¶ but was

for the month of April 1860.*

* 21st July 1857. subsequently gazetted* to a not less responsible post, as Acting Collector of Guntoor, the same Gazette containing also, Mr. Cherry's appointment, to the Subordinate Judgeship of Salem, which your Memorialist has been officially informed, Lord Harris intended to bestow upon him.

† 114 miles.

5. Your Memorialist on being relieved at Rajahmundry, proceeded at once to Guntoor,† where he acted as Collector, until relieved by Mr. Wood in November; when he was again thrown out of employ, on subsistence allowance, 252 miles from the Presidency, whither he proceeded; and hearing that the Collector of Tinnevely was about to go Home, on S. C., applied to act for him.

6. Mr. Dawson Mayne, a cotemporary of your Memorialist's, but of less actual service, then holding the substantive appointment of Subordinate Judge at Bellary, and Acting Judge of Madura, also applied for the acting appointment, and to be removed from Madura; and being gazetted to Tinnevely, your Memorialist was appointed his successor, as Acting Judge of Madura.

7. Shortly after this, the Judgeship of Madura became permanently vacant, and as your Memorialist was then acting, and had been superseded by Mr. Mayne at Tinnevely, owing to his request to be removed from Madura, your Memorialist mentioning these facts, and that he had been upwards of two years without any substantive appointment, though he had been led to believe he was to have been gazetted Subordinate Judge of Salem, when Mr. Cherry was so, begged that he might be confirmed Judge of Madura; but that if Mr. Mayne's claims were considered superior to his that he might be appointed to act as his successor at Tinnevely.

8. Mr. Mayne notwithstanding his avowed determination, never to return to Madura, was gazetted Civil and Session Judge, but permitted to remain at Tinnevely, while your Memorialist, was appointed to act for him at Madura; and, owing to his having been 26 months without a substantive appointment, he was also gazetted Subordinate Judge of Bellary, in succession to Mr. Mayne, without detriment to his Acting Judgeship. Thus after 26 month's active employment in the higher grades, during which he had at his own expense (increased by the requisitions of Government that he should use expedition) travelled upwards of one thousand miles, your Memorialist at last succeeded in obtaining a Subordinate substantive appointment, which he was not required to take up, notwithstanding the reasons assigned, for not appointing him Subordinate Judge of Rajahmundry upwards of two years before.

9. In reply to your Memorialist's application for the Judgeship of Madura, His Lordship the Governor replied, through his Private Secretary, that he was precluded from fulfilling his intention (of appointing your Memorialist Subordinate Judge of Salem) by the fact that he had just previously to Mr. Cherry's appointment been suspended by Government from the Office of Civil and Session Judge of Rajahmundry at the strong recommendation of the Sudder.

10. Your Memorialist would here repeat that he was appointed Acting Collector of Guntoor, and Mr. Cherry Subordinate Judge of Salem, in the same Gazette. As your Memorialist was considered competent to be entrusted with the supervision of the Guntoor District, as Collector, he saw no reason for his having been deprived of the Subordinate Judgeship of Salem, but attributed his being so, to the Government not wishing to place him again in the Judicial branch after the Sudder had expressed themselves so strongly against his fitness for the bench: but why he was not appointed Sub Collector in lieu of Mr. Cherry he could not understand, for having been appointed Acting Collector there could be no bar to his being appointed Sub Collector.

11. Your Memorialist has always endeavoured to perform whatever duties the Government have been pleased to assign to him with cheerfulness and assiduity, and with confidence appeals to the Local Government in confirmation of this statement; his position since he has been in the service, has, he believes, been singularly unfortunate, and that, from circumstances beyond his control; he was the Register of the Zillah Court of Cuddapah, when those appointments were abolished in 1843; from which time, until he was confirmed Subordinate Judge of Salem in 1851, he never was settled, and was always acting; drawing his Register's salary for seven years after that appointment was abolished: in 16

the service for such an appointment, though three years subsequently in 1850, and after upwards of 12½ years service, and acting for years in the higher grades, he was gazetted Head Assistant of Chingleput; he had hoped on his return from furlough that better fortune would have attended him, but as above shown he was kept 26 months without any substantive Subordinate appointment (on the old plea of being too high in the service), acting in the higher grades.

12. Having thus stated his case, and what he considers, some of his claims to consideration, your Memorialist will now briefly explain the occasion of his present Memorial. In the early part of the present year he accidentally heard that the Home Government, in a Despatch to the Local Government, had been pleased to view his proceedings, as Civil and Session Judge at Rajahmundry, which had caused his removal from that appointment, more leniently than it had been by the Faujdari Adalat and the Local Government; he therefore applied to the Local Government through the Chief Secretary for a copy of the Despatch, which was duly furnished him.

13. From a consideration of this Despatch, and specially the concluding part thereof, your Memorialist was of opinion that the Home Government were pleased to declare, that, for his proceeding at Rajahmundry, he should not be a sufferer in a pecuniary point of view. Your Memorialist therefore submitted,* for the favorable consideration of Government, his claim to Company's Rupees 5,589-4-6 being the difference of salary, &c., drawn by him, and what he would have received as Subordinate Judge of Salem, to which appointment he showed by the Acting Secretary's to Government own letter he would have been gazetted, on Mr. Smollett's departure, but for the fact, as apparent by the Private Secretary's own letter, of his having been suspended by Government at the recommendation of the Sadr Adalat.

Salem, to which appointment he showed by the Acting Secretary's to Government own letter he would have been gazetted, on Mr. Smollett's departure, but for the fact, as apparent by the Private Secretary's own letter, of his having been suspended by Government at the recommendation of the Sadr Adalat.

14. The Government in their Proceedings, dated 10th March 1860, No. 305, have expressed their opinion, that your Memorialist's claim is wholly inadmissible, but under the concluding para. of the Home Despatch, permit him to draw Deputation allowance, as Acting Civil and Session Judge for seven days, the period actually occupied by him in travelling from Rajahmundry to Guntoor.

15. Your Memorialist, with all submission to the Local Government, is inclined to believe, that the Home Government will be pleased to take a more favorable view of his case; and that having declared, on a full consideration of your Memorialist's case, "that under the circum-

APPENDIX A.

MY DEAR COTTON,

Lord Harris, to whom I mentioned the substance of your note, authorizes me to inform you, that in the arrangements consequent on Smollett's departure, you will be gazetted Subordinate Judge of Salem. You will continue to act where you are now for the present.

From R. R. COTTON, Esq., to H. A. MURRAY, Esq., Private Secretary, dated Madura, April 23rd 1858.

Having heard from Mr. Mayne that he anticipates being confirmed as Judge of Madura, at the end of the month, although he lately got removed from the place at his own request, and obtained the Acting Collectorate of Tinnevely, which I had long previously applied for, I beg most respectfully to lay my case before His Lordship. Mr. Mayne is the senior, just above me; though he is two months junior in actual service. On his return from furlough he obtained the Subordinate Judgeship of Bellary, which he now holds; and though he has been appointed to act at other stations, he has always had the benefit of his Sub Judge's pay, time to join, and travelling allowance, His Lordship is aware, that I applied for the Subordinate Judgeship of Rajahmundry, vacant on my return from furlough, but it was refused me on the plea that I should never take up the appointment, and Mr. Foord, who never joined was appointed. Subsequently, I, through Mr. Maltby the Acting Chief Secretary, represented the hardship of my case to His Lordship, and received an answer in which Mr. Maltby stated, he was authorized by His Lordship to inform me, that on the arrangements consequent on Mr. Smollett's retirement, I should be gazetted Subordinate Judge of Salem. Mr. Cherry was however appointed, though holding a confirmed Sub Collectorate and much my junior. Since then I have been removed to Guntoor as Acting Collector, and on being relieved paid my respects to His Lordship in the month of January, and mentioning that Mr. Silver was going away, requested I might be appointed to act as his application for leave had not been received His Lordship told me he could not give me any reply. I mentioned that I was aware that Mr. Silver was going and that I must leave myself in his hands.

When Mr. Silver was gazetted I did not think it necessary again to trouble His Lordship; but as I was the senior out of employ naturally expected to be appointed to Tinnevely, a District I was particularly desirous to return to, my father having been for many years Collector, and I was myself born, and had in the commencement of my service been an Assistant there; great however was my disappointment on finding that Mr. Mayne had supplanted me, but as I was appointed to act here and I knew Mr. Mayne had applied to be removed, I was satisfied and accepted the appointment, and was grateful for it, but at the time I had not the least idea that Mr. Mayne would be permitted to oust me. I learnt however subsequently from His Lordship that the appointment, when vacant, was to be offered to Mr. Mayne; though much disappointed, I could make no objection to this, as he was my senior, though I could not but view the chance of his second supercession of me as a great hardship. Mr. Mayne, however, writes that he will not join or take up the appointment, if such is the case, I most humbly submit that he can have no grounds of complaint if the appointment is given to me; and I most respectfully protest against his being appointed here over me, unless he is prepared to take up the appointment, in which case I request that I may be appointed Subordinate Judge of Bellary and Acting Collector of Tinnevely. The Judgeship of this station is one of the most responsible in the Presidency, the number of Session cases of late has been large, and employed me continuously since my arrival, and the amount in litigation exceeds immensely that in any other Court, I would submit therefore that if a man is to receive the pay of the office he should be called upon to do its duties.

Mr. Mayne in superseding me at Tinnevely, deprived me of some 80 Rupees a month more than I draw here; he has while holding similar appointment to myself been in the receipt of upwards of 400 Rupees a month more than myself, and while as above stated he has had a confirmed appointment to fall back on, and has had his time for taking up his acting appointments and received travelling allowance, I have been 26 months out of employ, and been obliged to join before I could draw any pay, beyond my subsistence allowance, and been called on to travel upwards of one thousand miles at my own expense; under these circumstances, I submit that Mr. Mayne has no just ground for complaint if I be appointed to an appointment he is unwilling to accept, if the acceptance involves his performing its duties; in comparison with myself, he has been fortunate, and if he wishes to select his appointments he should be content to wait till one that suits him falls vacant.

In conclusion, I request that I may be confirmed here as Civil Judge, but that should Mr. Mayne's claims to the appointment preclude His Lordship acceding to my request, I beg I may be appointed Subordinate Judge of Bellary and to act for Mr. Silver at Tinnevely.

C.

From H. A. MURRAY, Esq., to ROBERT COTTON, Esq., dated 28th April 1858.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, which I have laid before Lord Harris.

I am directed to inform you that the Governor considers the tone of your communication so objectionable, that he declines to give me any instructions as to answering it in detail with this exception, that he cannot too strongly express his surprise, that you should employ the note from Mr. Maltby in the manner you have done, when you must be perfectly well aware that His Lordship was precluded from fulfilling his intentions, by the fact, that you had just previously to Mr. Cherry's appointment to the Sub Judgeship of Salem been suspended by Government from the office of Civil and Session Judge of Rajahmundry at the strong recommendation of the Sudr.

DESPATCH FROM THE HONORABLE THE COURT OF DIRECTORS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 7 of 1858.

OUR GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL AT FORT SAINT GEORGE.

1. It appears from the papers in this case that on the conviction by the Faujdari Adalat of one Rednum Dhurmaroydoo, for forgery, Para. 20. Letter dated 24th December (No. 31) 1857.

Removal of Mr. R. R. Cotton from the appointment of Acting Session Judge of Rajahmundry.

Mr. Cotton, on the receipt of the record of conviction and sentence issued by the Superior Court, without having before him any fresh criminal proceedings or any new facts, directed

for the month of April 1860.*

the Acting Head Assistant Magistrate to search the house of the prisoner and to seize such papers as might be found there. On the Order being carried into effect, the wife of the prisoner presented a Petition to the Sudder Adalat complaining of Mr. Cotton's illegal proceedings.

2. The following Extract from Mr. Cotton's Return, dated 30th May 1857, to the Precept of the Faujdari Adalat of the 16th of the same month, contains a summary of the grounds on which he proceeded in directing the seizure of the prisoner's papers: "The Acting Session Judge would observe that under the English Law, the whole of the prisoner's property is liable to confiscation, he having been convicted of felony; the Acting Session Judge however is aware that it is not carried into effect in the Mofussil, and in attaching the prisoner's property, a step he considers, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, and the prisoner's notorious character for forgery, he was fully justified in taking, his object has been merely to prevent improper use being made of papers in the prisoner's possession, and to obtain information regarding the prisoner's connection with the public Officers of the Courts and Cutcherries." Mr. Cotton then proceeds to show that this connection existed to a considerable extent, and in a letter of the 7th July accounts for the irregularity of issuing his Order to the Assistant Magistrate instead of to the Magistrate by the absence of the latter officer in a distant part of his District.

3. The Faujdari Adalat being of opinion that the proceedings of Mr. Cotton were arbitrary and illegal and evinced great recklessness and want of judgment, recommended his removal from the Office of Acting Session Judge of Rajahmundry, and in this recommendation you concurred.

4. Upon the point of legality the opinion of the Faujdari Adalat must be considered conclusive. At the same time we fail to perceive any other motive on the part of Mr. Cotton for his irregular Order than zeal for the public service and a laudable desire to check the proceedings of a man, whose connection with the Ministerial Officers of the Local Courts was generally known to exercise a very prejudicial influence upon the administration of justice in the District under the Judicial superintendence of Mr. Cotton. Indeed we are not surprised that with evidence taken in his Court to show that the prisoner was a notorious forger and a record of recent conviction against him by the Superior Court for an act of forgery, Mr. Cotton believed that he was legally justified in directing the Assistant Magistrate to issue a Warrant for the search of the prisoner's papers. We think that, under these circumstances, an admonition pointing out the irregularity of the proceeding and enjoining more caution for the future would have met all the exigencies of the case, and we cannot approve of any measure which would injuriously affect Mr. Cotton's position pecuniarily otherwise.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department.

From R. R. COTTON, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Madura, to T. PYCROFT, Esq.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated 25th
February 1860, No. 56.

1. I have the honor, with reference to the concluding portion of the Despatch from the Honorable Court of Directors, Judicial Department, No. 7, dated 22nd June 1858, on the Proceedings of the Madras Government, removing me from my appointment of Acting Civil and Session Judge of Rajahmundry, to submit for the favorable consideration of Government, my claim to Rupees 5,584-4-6, being the pecuniary loss sustained by me, by my removal from that appointment, at the recommendation of the Court of Faujdari Adalat.

2. My present claim is based on the fact, apparent from the enclosures, that, but for my removal, I should have been appointed Subordinate Judge of Salem, on Mr. Smollett's departure for England in September 1857, and the abovementioned sum, is the difference between what I should have received, had I been so appointed, and what I actually drew till, subsequently in May, gazetted Subordinate Judge of Bellary, together with the actual loss sustained by my removal from Rajahmundry.

3. Both the enclosures were replies to my applications for some substantive appointment:
in that to the Private Secretary, I alluded to Mr. Cherry having been appointed Subordinate Judge of Salem, notwithstanding I had been led by Mr. Maltby, the Acting Secretary, to understand that I should be so.

ORDER THEREON, 10th March 1860, No. 305.

The Government consider Mr. Cotton's claim, as preferred in his letter, to be wholly inadmissible—but, under the opinion expressed by the Court of Directors in the concluding part of their Despatch, 22nd June 1858, No. 7, they will allow him to draw the deputation allowance of an Acting Civil and Session Judge for the period that intervened between his giving over charge of the Rajahmundry Zillah Court and assuming charge of the Guntur Collectorate, i. e., from 27th July to 3rd August 1857.
