Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 9th July 1860.

No. 36. Read the following letter from J. D. ROBINSON, Esq., Acting Magistrate of North Arcot, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th June 1860, No. 42.

On the 4th April last, the Joint Magistrate of Salem brought to my notice, that two casks of Sulphur, sent by one Narraina Chetty a Merchant of Wallajapet in this District to Karupa Tarugan a tradesman at Salem, had been stopped on arrival there because unaccompanied by a permit. I thereupon directed my Deputy Narasima Pantulu to take a deposition from the said Narraina Chetty and forward it to me, which has accordingly been done.

2. From this deposition, it appears that Narraina Chetty and Karupa Tarugan are partners in trade, that the Sulphur was sent to the latter for sale, and that as the order prohibiting the sale of Sulphur in large quantities was issued a long time ago, it never occurred to him to apply for a permit to cover the present consignment. Narraina Chetty adds that he has still 16 maunds of Sulphur in his possession.

3. I have meanwhile requested the Joint Magistrate of Salem to secure the Sulphur, until he hears further from me on the subject.

4. With this explanation, I beg respectfully to recommend that the Sulphur be restored to the consignee as it does not appear to have been sent with any sinister intention, and the term for which Act XXVIII of 1857 (happily no longer necessary) was declared to be in force has nearly expired.

No. 37. ORDER THEREON, 9th July 1860, No. 852.

The Government desire to be informed when and from whom Narraina Chetty obtained the two casks of Sulphur referred to in the above letter, what quantity the two casks contained, what further quantities Narraina Chetty has at any time received since Act XXVIII, 1857 came into force, from whom, and how he has disposed of them, and how he contrived to procure and store such Sulphur without a license, or apparently without the knowledge of the Police Authorities.

2. Referring to the concluding para. of his letter, the Acting Magistrate is informed that Act XXVIII of 1857 is about to be continued and that the Government do not think it at all desirable that the existing restrictions on the sale and transport of Sulphur should be relaxed.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
