Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, for the month of January 1860.

No. 20. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Register to the Court of Faujdari Adalat; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 19th January 1860, No. 3.

I am directed by the Judges of the Faujdari Adalat to report for the Orders of Government, under the provisions of Act IV of 1849, the case of one Aundy, prisoner in No. 94 of 1859, on the Calendar of the Session Court of Calicut, who was tried for the murder of his wife, but acquitted on the ground that at the time of committing the act he was of unsound mind. The Civil Surgeon certifies that the man is insane, and considers that he ought never to be allowed to go at large again.

ORDER THEREON, 28th January 1860, No. 96.

No. 21. The prisoner, Aundy, was tried before the Session Court of Calicut, for the murder of his wife, but was acquitted on the ground of unsoundness of mind.

2. Under the provisions of Act IV, 1849, the Governor in Council directs that he be confined for life. For the present, he will be imprisoned in the Zillah Jail.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
