Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
8th August 1861.

No. 67. Read the following letter from A. MACDONALD RITCHIE, Esq., Registrar of the Supreme Court, Madras; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 29th July 1861.

I have the honor to address you, relative to the Swearing man in the Supreme Court, nominated Oshen, who has drawn his salary monthly through the Registrar of the Supreme Court, under the head of Contingent charges sanctioned by Government, from the month of October 1827, up to last month; and to forward the original Memorandum from the Officiating Civil Auditor which accompanied the Contingent Bill for last month, passed and returned for payment, and to solicit your attention thereto.

MEMORANDUM.

The charge on account of Oshen being a monthly recurring one, the sanction of the Government should be obtained to its being drawn in the Abstract of the Supreme Court as a final charge.

(Signed) W. J. RAYNOR,

25th July 1861.

No. 68. ORDER THEREON, 8th August 1861, No. 1,001.

The Registrar of the Supreme Court is requested to state what salary is allowed to the Swearing man, Oshen, and whether he is employed in addition to the Moollah and the Mint and Water Brahmin, and cannot be dispensed with.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
