No. 16. Proceedings of Government, dated 3rd September 1861. No. 1,100.

Read again Proceedings, 13th July 1861, No. 903.

Resolved that Lieutenant R. J. Corbett, Quarter Master of the Native Infantry Depôt at Palaveram, who was appointed to exercise the powers of a Joint Magistrate, during the absence of Lieutenant Mottet, be confirmed as Joint Magistrate, vice Lieutenant Mottet.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.

Exd. F. Cartledge.

My dear Sir

I have shown these papers to the Governor.

He observes that altho both the Collector & Deputy Commissioner that the Adjutant of the depot at Palamou should be made a Joint Magistrate for the Station. He gives him no express decision on the point - but simply appointed him as a second motto - who happened to be Adjutant at the time - The appointment was not made in the usual way of his being appointed Adjutant, but was it rather expressed a complaint that he & I

- being & Adjutant together go together -

On the second he offered getting leave and staff officer of the depot - Lieut Collett the same.

- he then was appointed to act for him - and presuming that he is justified for the duty, as Mr. Ross has written that he should have been in our list -

Mr. Smith he offered was appointed a second Collett put in to and by a simple order of Council, for his duty.
