With reference to the annexed Extract from a Diary of Lieutenant J. E. Baillie, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Salem, dated Kistnagherri, 20th November 1860, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for a reward of Rupees (35) thirty-five being made to Police Constable Hyder Beg for his bravery.

Extract from a letter from Lieutenant J. E. Baillie, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Salem District; to W. Robinson, Esq., Inspector General of Madras Police, dated Kistnaghiri, 20th November 1860.

Private Hyder Beg rushed forward with a spear in advance of the others, and made a thrust at one of the robbers when he was overpowered and cut down, he received four wounds, two very bad ones, one on the right side of the neck, and a very deep sword cut on the right breast, about five inches long, quite exposing the bone.

I have promoted him from 3rd to 1st class for his conspicuous bravery. I have every reason to think he will recover.
