No. 103. Read the following letter from C. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to the Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, dated Fort William, Council Chamber, the 14th August 1861, No. 10,453.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 164, dated 14th March last, enquiring whether a Cantonment Joint Magistrate is to be considered to be in Civil employ, and thus only entitled, under Financial Resolution of 19th July 1860, No. 6,374, to the privilege leave allowed to Civilians, or whether he is to be considered as simply on staff employ, and thus entitled to the 60 days' privilege leave in the year, which is allowed to all Military Officers not in strictly Civil duty.

2. In reply, I am desired to state that as a Cantonment Joint Magistrate receives his appointment from the local Government, is employed on Civil duties, and receives a Civil salary for his Magisterial duties, he should be treated as in Civil employ, not as in Military staff employ, his regimental allowances though passed in the Military Department, being debited to the Civil Department, conformably with the above view.

No. 10,462.

Copy to be sent to all the Civil Paymasters, for information and guidance.

Copy to be also sent to the Military Department, for the issue of such further orders as may be necessary, and to the other local Governments, for information.

No. 104. ORDER THEREON, 17th September 1861, No. 1,165.

Communicated to the Accountant General.
