N^o 213
From J. Lushington, Esquire
Accountant General
J. Pycroft, Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government
Judicial Department.

Sir

With reference to para 2 of the order of Government dated the 5th Instant, N^o 1340 in which they remark that "they are not aware of the Accountant General's reasons for having exhibited the Estimates of the Translator for printing charges under IV Miscellaneous instead of retaining them under the same head as Salaries, Establishments and Contingencies of these Officers". I have the honor to explain that in the forms received from the Government of India for the preparation of the Budget for 1861-62, the item Printing, executed at other other than Government Presses" is entered under IX Miscellaneous, and accordingly the printing charges in question were exhibited under that head in the Budget Estimate prepared in this Office.

In the forms received from the Auditor General of India for the preparation of the Budget Estimates for 1862-63, printing charges of the above description will have to be entered under Printing Charges, XV, minor head Contracts with private printing Presses.

expenses of Public Departments.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Obedt. Servant.
