Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd November 1861.

No. 137. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th November 1861, No. 1,105.

With reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 1,092, dated 2nd September, I have the honor to state that, no Order of the Government of India sanctioning the Establishment of the Supreme Court of this Presidency, which, with slight modifications, has been passed since 1801 as authorized by the Madras Government, can be traced in this Office.

2. With respect to the objection to pass the pay of the Ochen or Swearing man, I would explain that, under existing orders, the pay of Servants of any class cannot be passed in Contingent Bills, nor can any increase be admitted in the Abstracts of fixed or permanent Establishments, without the express sanction of the Government of India. I have been unable to discover why the pay of the Ochen continued to be drawn for so many years in the Contingent Bill of the Supreme Court, unless it was owing to the charge not having been sanctioned by Government; for, as the regular Establishment of the Supreme Court appears to have been sanctioned by this Government, the Ochen could have been brought on the Abstract under the same authority, prior to the receipt of the late prohibitory orders.

3. The Order quoted in paragraph 3 of the Proceedings under reply refers solely to changes in permanent Establishments, and is not applicable to a case like the present, involving transfer of a charge from the head of Contingent to permanent. Seeing however that the charge in question has been passed since 1827, if the Government are satisfied of the necessity for its continuance, and consider that it should be regarded as a part of the regular Establishment, I am prepared to admit its transfer to the Abstract of the Supreme Court under their authority. A note explanatory of the increase will be entered in the next annual Book of (Permanent) Establishments furnished to the Government of India.

No. 138. ORDER THEREON, 22nd November 1861, No. 1,434.

Communicated to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, who will include the salary of the Ochen in the Pay Abstract of the Supreme Court Establishment.
