Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th November 1861.

No. 173. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the Sudder Court; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 23rd November 1861, No. 118.

1. In reply to the Proceedings of Government, dated the 16th instant, No. 1,395, I am directed by the Judges to state that the present practice in regard to holidays in the Courts, is founded upon the Order of Government, dated 1st December 1858, No. 1,490.

2. The only deviation from that Order which has been permitted by the Judges, has been where a change of days has been rendered necessary by local usage with respect to Native holidays. In such cases the rule is that other Native holidays may be granted in lieu of those specified in the Government list, provided the total number of days be not exceeded.

3. I am directed to add that for the last six years a practice has prevailed in the public Offices at the Presidency of granting a half holiday every Saturday, provided there are no arrears; and that the Ministerial Establishment of the Sudder Court has been allowed a similar indulgence.

No. 174. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, dated Fort Saint George, 28th November 1861, No. 1,468.

In reply to Mr. Under Secretary Rivett Carnac's letter, 5th instant, No. 2,182, inquiring what is the present practice in this Presidency in regard to holidays in the Civil Courts, I am directed to submit the annexed letter, 23rd instant, No. 118, from the Sudder Court, and to forward a copy of the Order, 1st December 1858, No. 1,490, Public Department, therein referred to.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
