No. 167. Read the following Memorandum from the Superintendent of the Government Gazette Press, dated Fort Saint George, 5th December 1860.

The charges for cutting, stitching and folding made in the accompanying Bill are much higher than they should be. The list forwarded herewith gives about the real value of the work done. It has been framed according to the maximum rates at which similar work was valued at the Government Press last year, and as they were adjusted annually by those prevailing in the various Offices outside, (the mean being taken,) I have no doubt of their fairness and would recommend that very little, if any more, should be paid than the total there shown, viz., Rupees 115-2-0.

Superintendent,

No. 168. ORDER THEREON, 26th February 1861, No. 262.

The rates charged for cutting and stitching the Vernacular versions of the Acts are exorbitantly high, and the Government decline to sanction payment on those terms. Adopting the maximum rates prevailing at the Government Press, as regulated by the mean charge in private Offices, the sum claimed is more than 100 Rupees in excess of what it should properly be. The Bill with a copy of Mr. Smith's Memo. will be returned to the Proprietor of the Vartamána Tarangini Press for revision.

2. The Government resolve to request that the several Translators will report the arrangements they have made for cutting and stitching the Acts. This duty, they observe, should be provided for in the Contract.

Chief Secretary.
