Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 11th March 1861.

No. 92. Read the following Proceedings of the Sudder Court, dated 5th March 1861, No. 31.
Read Proceedings of Government, dated the 22nd ultimo, communicating, for the issue of such instructions as the Judges may consider necessary, copy of a Notification by the Government of India, ruling that the provisions of the Stamp Act are applicable to suits instituted in the Military Courts constituted under Acts XI of 1841, and III of 1859.

1. The Judges remark that they have no jurisdiction or control over the Courts of Cantonment Joint Magistrates constituted under the provisions of Act III of 1859.

2. With respect to Military Courts of Requests convened under Act XI of 1841, the Judges have appellate jurisdiction only in cases where such Courts are held beyond the frontier and the amount of the claim exceeds Rupees 200. Having no general control over these Courts, the Judges do not feel called upon to express any opinion upon the question whether the Stamp Act is applicable to suits instituted therein.
