These have now been abolished on the introduction of the new Police. The Police guard the Jails and working parties, but do not undertake the work in the interior of the Jails hitherto performed by the extra Peons. Hence has arisen the necessity for employing these Warders. The proposed charge is, the Inspector General of Jails states, owing to want of proper and sufficient prison accommodation in the Zillah Jails, which cannot be afforded in the present state of the finances.
