Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
11th January 1861.

No. 48. Read the following letter from Major W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 5th January 1861, No. 6.

With reference to the Order of Government, dated 15th December 1860, No. 1,652, Judicial Department, I have the honor to state, that in consequence of the gradual and steady increase of the correspondence in this Department, (the average excess in each year of the number of letters dispatched and received being between four and five hundred,) it is not possible for me to detail any one from the present establishment of this Office, to conduct the duties of the Arms Act Writer, and I would therefore beg to suggest, that he be brought on the fixed establishment, and that his services be retained for such period as the Act shall continue in force.

No. 49. ORDER THEREON, 11th January 1861, No. 39.

The Commissioner of Police is requested to explain what are the peculiar duties of the Arms Act Writer and for what length of time daily or weekly he is engaged in them—also, supposing that the services of a Writer are indispensably required for the purposes of the Act, whether one at a lower rate of salary than 50 Rupees per mensem might not suffice.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
