Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
26th March 1861.

No. 233. Read the following letter from J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 15th March 1861, No. 212.

1. I have the honor to forward herewith a Statement of my disbursements on behalf of Government during the year 1860: also my Account Current with Government for the same period in which are credited all moneys received or recovered by me on behalf of Government and exhibiting a balance in favor of Government on the 31st of December last, of Rupees 6,669-15-11.

2. I have produced vouchers for my disbursements to the Master of the Supreme Court who has appended his Certificate to that effect.

3. I now beg to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government to this Statement and Account Current.

No. 234. ORDER THEREON, 26th March 1861, No. 417.

The Government Solicitor submits a Statement of disbursements made by him on behalf of Government during the year 1860.

2. Besides expenses in Civil Suits, the Statement includes payments to Counsel, &c., in Criminal prosecutions, chargeable to the Supreme Court Fines Fund.

No. 702, 27th May 1859.
,, 1,018, 29th July ,,

3. In the Orders noted in the margin, the Government directed their Solicitor to examine and countersign, if correct, the bills of the Clerk of the Crown, who would as usual submit them to the Civil Auditor for audit, and obtain payment from the Treasury. Mr. Boyson appears, however, to have disbursed such bills from the advances made to him.

4. The Accountant General will report whether any inconvenience will be occasioned from the Government Solicitor adopting this course. If not he will pursue it for the future.

5. In the meantime to avoid delay, the Government sanction the disbursements, (Rupees 18,535-13-9) eighteen thousand five hundred and thirty-six Rupees, according to the Statement, which has been countersigned by the Master of the Supreme Court. The amount paid for Criminal prosecutions will be charged to the Fines Fund, and the Government Solicitor receive a corresponding credit in adjustment of his advances.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
