Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 3rd April 1861.

No. 5. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel H. COLBECK, Senior Magistrate of Police, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 22nd March 1861, No. 14.

I have the honor to request you will obtain the sanction of the Government for the disbursement of the accompanying Bill for Rupees 147-15-7.

2. The alteration and amendment of Act XIII of 1856, by Act XLVIII of 1860, rendered the arrangement and arraigning of cases difficult and complicated.

3. I therefore at the expense of some trouble and labor compiled a book of ready reference with copious Index for the use of the whole Police Department.

4. Sixty-four copies I have handed over to the Commissioner of Police and the rest have been distributed for the use of the three Magistrates' Courts.

5. The book has been pronounced as likely to prove of very great use, particularly as obviating the confusion between the altered and amended Sections of Act XIII of 1856 and the Act to amend it.

6. I have herewith the honor to forward two copies.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 3rd April 1861, No. 448.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to authorize the disbursement to Lieutenant Colonel H. Colbeck of the expense, (Rupees 147-15-7) one hundred and forty-eight Rupees, of re-publishing the Police Act XIII of 1856 (Amended.)
