1. I am directed by the Judges, with reference to paragraph 3 of the Orders of Government dated 21st February 1861, to annex a table showing the progress made in reducing the appeal files at Mangalore, and to state that it appears to them desirable that the employment of the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen transferred from Combaconum should be sanctioned for another year, in order to clear off the remaining arrears and bring the files to a satisfactory state.

2. The Judges also recommend that the Civil Judge may be authorized to entertain two temporary Goomastahs, one on Rupees 30 and the other on Rupees 20 a month, so long as the Principal Sudder Ameen of Nellore may be employed at Mangalore, the Civil Judge being unable to spare a sufficient number of Goomastahs, to render his establishment efficient. It will be remembered that, by the Order of Government, dated 20th October 1860, the establishment of this Principal Sudder Ameen was abolished; and that, by paragraph 2 of their Order, dated 13th August 1860, the Civil Judge was directed to assign him Goomastahs from his own establishment

No. 29. ORDER THEREON, 8th April 1861, No. 463.

The Government of India will be requested to sanction the retention of the additional Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Mangalore for another year, and the employment of two Goomastahs on Rupees 30 and 20 a month respectively, as long as the Principal Sudder Ameen transferred from Nellore, may continue in the former Zillah. These Goomastahs may be employed, and the Civil Auditor is authorized to admit the charges in both cases, in anticipation of the orders of the Government of India.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

In their Orders of the 11th February 1859 in the Financial Department, communicated under endorsement, 19th idem, No. 339, Home Department, the Government of India sanctioned the transfer to Mangalore of the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen of Combaconum, and the establishment of the Court in the former Zillah for a period of two years, commencing from the 8th April 1859. That period will expire shortly, and the Judges of the Sudder Court have submitted the following Statement to show the progress that has been made in reducing the Appeal Files at Mangalore.	Favorable.

Years.	Pending on the 1st January.	Filed.	Total.	Disposed of by the: Civil Judge.	Sub Judge.	Assistant Judge.	Three Principal Sudder Ameens.	Total.	Remaining on the 31st December.
1858	1,474	555	2,029	126	64	119	121	440	1,589
1859	1,589	491	2,080	152	40	.....	459	641	1,439
1860	1,439	460	1,899	124	42	.....	650	816	1,083

The Judges consider it desirable to retain the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen for another year to clear off the remaining arrears, and bring the files to a satisfactory state.

3. The third Principal Sudder Ameen in this Zillah was transferred from Nellore in August 1860, to aid in the disposal of appeals. His establishment at Nellore at 507 Rupees a month was abolished, and the Civil Judge at Mangalore was instructed to assign from his own establishment such servants as might be required by the Principal Sudder Ameen. The Civil Judge has represented that he is unable to spare a sufficient number of hands, and the Sudder Court have recommended the employment of two Gomastahs on Rupees 30 and 20 a month respectively, as long as the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court is held at Mangalore.

4. The Government have sanctioned the retention of the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen for another year, and the entertainment of the two temporary Gomastahs in the Court of the Principal Sudder Ameen transferred from Nellore, as recommended by the Sudder Judges—and solicit the confirmation of the Government of India thereto.

5. The Government contemplate closing temporarily the Sub Judge's Court at Mangalore from the middle of next month (April), and substituting a Principal Sudder Ameen. The reduction which will be thus effected, will, as shown in the tabular Statement, of itself more than cover the cost of the arrangements submitted for sanction.

The Judges consider it desirable to retain the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen for another year to clear off the remaining arrears, and bring the files to a satisfactory state.

2. That third Principal Sudder Ameen transferred from Kollary in August 1860, is also in the disposal of Appeals. His establishment at Kollary at 507 Rupees a month was abolished, and the Civil Judge of Mangalore was instructed to assign from his own Establishment such amount as might be found requisite by the Principal Sudder Ameen, the Civil Judge having represented that he is unable to spare any efficient establishment, and the Sudder Court have recommended the establishment of two Gomastahs on Rupees 30 and 20 a month respectively as long as the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court is kept up at Mangalore.

3. The Gov^t have sanctioned the retention of the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen for another year, and the entertainment of the two Gomastahs recommended by the Sudder Court.

4. The Principal Sudder Ameen transferred from Kollary has been recommended by the Sudder Court and Civil Judge for the confirmation of the Gov^t of Madras thereto.

5. The Gov^t confirmed, abolishing temporarily the Sub Judge's Court at Mangalore from the ensuing month (April), and substituting a Principal Sudder Ameen.

6. The reduction which will be thereby effected will, as shown in the subjoined Statement, of itself more than cover the cost of the arrangements submitted for sanction.
