Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 14th January 1861.

No. 62. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Auditor, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 4th January 1861, No. 2.

In reporting on the accompanying application for privilege leave from C. Lutchoomiah Naidoo, District Moonsiff of Cuddalore, I have the honor to note in the margin, the report made by this Office on the 14th ultimo, on a previous application of that Officer for privilege leave: from which it will be seen that, to allow of such leave being obtained retrospectively, it is necessary that it should be granted by Government as a special case.

"Eligible to a month's leave under Section VII of the Rules, having been 11 months at his station, but privilege leave cannot be granted with retrospective effect, except as a special case (vide Orders of the Government of India, dated 12*th April* 1860, published at page 1,050 of the Official Gazette for that year) which should be sanctioned by Government."

To GEORGE ELLIS, Esq.,
Civil Judge of Cuddalore.

Urzee of C. Lutchoomiah Naidoo, District Moonsiff of Cuddalore.

As I was sick, I applied on the 6th instant, to obtain for me a month's privilege leave from 7th instant, under Section VII of the Uncovenanted Service Rules. But having subsequently recovered my health, I have this day resumed charge of my Court from the Head Goomastah and held Court. I do not require a month's privilege leave as applied for on the 6th instant.

I therefore pray that you will be pleased to recommend to the Sudder Court to grant me leave of absence for 14 days with retrospective effect from 7th to 20th instant.

(Signed) C. LUTCHOOMIAH NAIDOO,
District Moonsiff.
