My dear Mr. Pycroft -
I have spoken
with Col. Pitchard J.R.G.
& he at once said that the course pursued in 1854 ^{regarding the money to attend to} was amply sufficient & as binding on the men as anything could be - he intd send me
this in writing shortly.

As all Artillery men have also to be attested & every solitary European

all over the country
there are yet a large number of stations
unprovided for, though they are not of so much importance as the stations noted
in your order.

Yours sincerely
J. B. Roberts.

My dear Mr. Pycroft.
I have now the pleasure to forward the list of stations at which men will require to be attested - in some of these stations there will probably be only one or two men.

I have written in black ink it is assumed the Civil authorities will find no difficulty in providing for, and those in red ink are the reverse -

Perhaps it would be well to secure the presence of the Rev. Mr. Kilmer at Jaulnah by telegram
but in case he is too unwell to remain a deputy magistrate of some kind might surely be sent from Poonah, or Ahmednagar,

My dear Sakchi

I take it the Govt have received the "Warrant signed by the Secy. of War" alluded to in St. Dec. of "Hunting Act" of 1870 but the Govt cannot afford any "fee" - and then "any" section of the "Hunt & Magistrate" acting for the place

such enlistments
must be sent to the re-enlisting
for the time.

After they the "Elegance" by such stress on
"Civil Magistrate"
your security
- Dutchman
- Killack is gone
or going away also

but there are sev"eral unaccountable
men in the staff.

Please let Mr. Pycroft see it and return to me. I have sent the message up to Collyer.
