2. Of these, the Convicts named in the margin* were engaged in a gang robbery organized and perpetrated by a notorious Mussalman family residing near Sedashighur, in the name of Hanamanth Sawunt.

3. Gongu Naik was convicted of highway robbery, but unattended by circumstances which should cause mercy to be withheld.

4. Lingojee Rao however had been at one time a Government Servant; but lost his situation through misconduct.

5. He was an instigator of rebellion, and actively engaged in plotting an attack on Dharwar, and under these circumstances is one of a class to whom the mercy of Government cannot properly be extended.

No. 36.

ORDER THEREON, 6th May 1861, No. 601.

The Governor in Council is pleased to remit the unexpired portion of the sentences of the Convicts named in the foregoing letter, with the exception of Lingojee Rao in the Jail at Mangalore, who must be held in confinement for the entire period of his sentence.
