I further beg to state, that I delivered eight articles to one Parim Buchipapa out of the Estate in question, my predecessor having held proceedings on the 30th March 1860, that the said articles should be restored to her, in consequence of her having proved by witnesses, that they were her own property.

RAJAHMUNDY, PRINCIPAL
SADR AMIN'S COURT,
27th August 1859.

From Mr. C. AMBROSE, to JAMES WILKINS, Esq., Principal Sadr Amin, dated Madras, 10th October 1859.

Having seen a Notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 27th August last, inviting claimants to the properties of the late discharged Assistant Apothecary A. Ambrose, who died intestate at Dhowlaiswaram, valued at Rupees 28-3-9, in deposit in your Office; I beg to inform you that I am his paternal uncle and as such the rightful claimant for the same.

I would have made application long before this; but when I first saw his name in the Gazette wrongly given, I wrote to a few of my friends, who in return stated that the Notification referred to my poor nephew C. J. Ambrose and not A. Ambrose as it appeared in the Notification, and to confirm this I beg to refer you to the Madras Army list.

I have in my possession an Inventory of the articles possessed by the deceased and deposited in your Office wherein I find a gold ring and a Pegue medal which I wish to possess as memento and beg you will kindly despatch the same to my address by banghy. Further, I beg you will deliver his well earned Diploma to 2nd Dresser M. Devasagoyem of the Civil Hospital at Dhowlaiswaram from whom I will receive the same.

The proceeds of the sale of the rest of the articles please remit to my favor.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 14th May 1861.

Should further proof or attestation be required I beg you will apprise me of what is necessary and I will attend to it.

I am employed at the Director General's Office Medical Department, and beg you will direct my letters as shown below.

In acknowledging receipt of your letter of the 10th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the property belonging to the late discharged Assistant Apothecary A. Ambrose cannot be made over to you, unless your heirship to the deceased is established by evidence, for which a Vakalatnamah to one of the authorized Pleaders (whose names are noted below) should be granted by you, paying certain fees to him—a stamp paper worth 8 Annas is also required to present a motion to the Court for the above purpose.

I have also to state that a woman alleging she was deceased's concubine presented herself before the Court and claimed several of the articles as her own.

1. C. Hanumanlu, 2. V. Kamaraz, 3. M. Gulamalli Khan, 4. C. Narasia and 5. S. Ranga-prasad Naidu.

*Order given by the late Principal Sadr Amin of Rajahmundry on the 30th March 1860, on peti-
