Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 17th January 1861.

No. 90. Read the following letter from G. PEARSE, Esq., M.D., Principal Inspector General, Medical Department, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated 7th January 1861, No. 3.

Adverting to Proceedings of Madras Government, Judicial Department, as per margin, I have the honor to observe, that the rules drawn up by Dr. Beatty of the Bombay Medical Service, for the treatment of snake bites, appear to be judicious, and I would suggest their being at once translated into the Native languages of this Presidency and published in the Official Gazettes, for general information.

No. 1,677, dated 20*th ultimo.*

No. 91. ORDER THEREON, 17th January 1861, No. 64.

Rules to be observed in the treatment of snake bites.
Directions for using Liquor of Ammonia in the treatment of snake bites.

Ordered that the rules and directions in question be published several times in the Fort Saint George Gazette—and that the Collectors and Magistrates be requested to publish them likewise in the District Gazettes.

2. The Government Translators will prepare translations of these papers for publication in the same manner.

3. The Commissioner of Police will apply to the Superintendent of the Gazette Press for the number of copies in English and the Vernaculars he will require for distribution among Tannah Stations. A similar distribution will be made by the Magistrates in their respective Districts, through the Superintendents of Police, or otherwise.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
