From

To

Chief Secretary

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration of Government the request of Lieutenant Hando to be permitted to resign the Police service.

2-. Lieutenant Hando has proved an earnest and diligent Officer while engaged, and I submit his resignation with regret. I had hoped, when he first wrote, that he might be able to continue till my return to Madras and requested him accordingly to remain at his post; but he has telegraphed that his health has failed, and has requested permission to make over charge to Lieutenant Gordon his Assistant.

As the matter is one of urgency, I have instructed Lieutenant Gordon to take charge; and on my return to Madras I will bring the matter
