Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
19th June 1861.

No. 139. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. WOOD, Bart., Secretary of State for India; to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated London, 16th May 1861, No. 17.

Judicial.

Your Public letter dated 8th March 1861, transmitting a petition from certain inhabitants of the Town of Madras, complaining of interference on the part of your Government with their peculiar rights and privileges has been laid before me in Council.

2. The terms of the petition are very general, but I gather from it that the Petitioners complain chiefly of the Government not interfering to check the proceedings of Missionaries and certain Editors of Newspapers, who are charged by the Petitioners with attacking them in matters of religion and caste.

3. In such statements as those contained in the petition, I fail to perceive any real ground of complaint against the Government; which the Petitioners must be well aware has no connection with Missionaries and Editors of Newspapers, who occupy no official position.

4. In regard to the case alluded to in the concluding part of the petition, I refer you to my Despatch No. 9 of the 23rd March last.

No. 140. ORDER THEREON, 19th June 1861, No. 791.

A copy of paragraphs 2 & 4 of the foregoing Despatch will be furnished to W. Shunmoogum Moodelly, T. Narasimmooloo and others, in reference to their petition of 1st February 1861.

2. It is observed that the Magistrate of Madura was on the 4th ultimo, directed to communicate to the Inhabitants of Aroopocottah the decision passed upon their Memorial by the Secretary of State for India in his Despatch of the 23rd March 1861.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
