Mr.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, should ever omit this. Mr. Purvis would do well to read the three short chapters in "Roscoe's Law of evidence in Criminal Cases," on "Confessions," "Examinations," and "Depositions."

16th July 1861.

6. In Kemp's case there was the clearest proof that the prisoner had for many months been systematically defrauding the Telegraph Department and the workmen under him, embezzling their wages, and sending in false Acquittance Rolls with forged signatures, and false Accounts Current. He was convicted, though ably defended by Mr. Branson, and sentenced by the Chief Justice to 18 months' imprisonment with hard labor in the Penitentiary.

No. 130.

ORDER THEREON, 16th July 1861, No. 913.

Paragraphs 1 to 4 of this Report will be communicated to the Military Department—and paragraphs 1 to 5 to the Magistrate of the Godavery District. Mr. Purvis' attention will be called to the remarks of the Advocate General in paragraph 5.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
